

Judi Neal

People and Organizations that Take Risks, Build Bridges, and Break New Ground

EDGEWALKERS

EDGEWALKER WORKSHOP

This three day workshop is highly experiential. It is designed to help you clarify your leading edge and to develop the qualities and skills to manifest what you are called to do in the world.

Benefits of attending:

- Become more aware of the importance of your role as an Edgewalker in the world.
- Discover you unique Edgewalker qualities and skills.
- Be inspired by other Edgewalkers.
- Clarify your leading edge challenge and develop an action plan for breaking through.
- Learn the role of Edgewalkers in organizations and understand other worldviews besides those of Edgewalkers.
- Conduct a quick and easy assessment of your team or organization and learn about other tools available for team and organizational assessment.
- Become a member of the Edgewalker Collaborative Network and receive ongoing support.

What you will learn:

- What is an Edgewalker?
- Why are Edgewalkers needed in today's world?
- Qualities and skills of an Edgewalker
- Examples of Edgewalkers in leadership roles
- Edgewalker qualities and skills
- Organizational Orientations
- Action planning

Cost: $695 US or 530 Euros

This workshop is a pre-requisite for those who are being certified as an Edgewalker Workshop Facilitator.

Ongoing support from Edgewalker Certified Coaches is available following the workshop.

Edgewalker Collaborative Network
Judi Neal, Ph.D.
745 N. Sequoyah Dr., Fayetteville, AR 72701
judi@edgewalkers.org, +1 479-871-9116
www.edgewalkers.org